Community Shares announces 2010 officers and new board members

Columbus, OH – Community Shares of Mid Ohio is announcing the executive officers and expansion of their board for 2010. The board now consists of 60 board members, each representing one of Community Shares non-profit member organizations. Each organization determines their board representative as well as an alternate. The executive committee is voted upon by the board members of Community Shares.

Community Shares of Mid Ohio is proud to announce its 2010 Executive Committee for its Board of Trustees:

Jeff Whiting, President and Kaleidoscope Youth Center representative

David Meredith, Vice President and Inn at Broad representative

Gary Daniels, Secretary and ACLU of Ohio Foundation representative

John Moore, Treasurer, Deaf Services Center Executive Director and representative

Becky Mason, Board Liaison and Ohio Domestic Violence Network representative

New organizations being represented on the board include:

Maliha Raazi, Asha Ray of Hope representative

Angie Palmer, The Film Council of Greater Columbus representative

Gloria Jones, The Fountain of Hope representative

With 18 years of success in workplace fundraising and distributions of $3 million to its members, Community Shares of Mid Ohio assists local area non-profits in new options to receive donations. Through workplace fundraising drives done in public and private sector workplaces, employees are given the opportunity to donate directly to the non-profit agencies they care about most through payroll contributions.
